

WEEKLY REPORT

05/09-05/15/10

On Saturday, May 8th, at 3:22 a.m. two residents were walking on North Street when they were approached by a group of 10-15 people that consisted of both sexes. One member of the group asked the residents if they had a cigarette. When told that they did not, the group began to assault the residents. The suspects were later identified and charges are pending.

On Thursday, May 13th, at 3:01 a.m., Officer Andres was conducting a property check at the Fairfield Shopping Center. As the officer was checking the rear of the center, he observed a naked male from the area of Fairfield Apartments. The male was able to elude responding officers. A vehicle was found in the shopping center parking lot with men's clothes as well as female undergarments. At 7:13 a.m., officers responded to a report of a male wearing only a thong, peeping into windows. The man was arrested and was the same person in both instances. The suspect was charged and released on $500.00 unsecured bail.

On Saturday, May 15th, in response to several large parties, over a dozen young people were charged with underage drinking, possession of alcohol on public streets, and noise violations.

During the week of May 17th, Captain John Potts attended the Delaware Chiefs of Police Council training convention in Rehoboth Beach.

On Wednesday, May 19th, a suspect turned himself into the Newark Police Department, confessing to a murder he committed in another state the previous day. The murder was confirmed and the investigation is continuing.
