

WEEKLY REPORT

06/13-06/19/10

M/Cpl. Bryda and Cpl. Keld have begun speaking at the University of Delaware parent orientation programs. On each day parents of the incoming freshman class receive an orientation concerning the university. M/Cpl Bryda and Cpl. Keld speak to the parents about actions their child can take to ensure they do not become a victim of a crime. The program is held every day and ends in late July.

Last week, on two separate nights, unlocked vehicles were entered and items were removed. Residents were notified to lock their vehicle doors and remove any valuables. Patrols were increased in the residential neighbors during the overnight hours. As a result we have not had any thefts from vehicles during the overnight hours since last week.

On Wednesday, June 23rd, Captain Potts and Lt. Simpson attended the police and public safety expo in Atlantic City, NJ.

On Wednesday, June 23rd, Chief Tiernan attended an emergency meeting of the Delaware Police Chief's Council concerning House Bill No 478. The Bill seeks to add an additional penalty on each fine assessed to any person convicted of a criminal or traffic violation.
