

WEEKLY REPORT
10/10-10/16/10

On Thursday, October 14th, at 8:53 p.m., Corporal Chris Jones and his K9 partner, Paco, stopped a vehicle for failing to signal a turn. A check of the driver revealed that his drivers' license was suspended and he was wanted out of New Castle County for failure to appear on drug charges. K9 Paco used his sense of smell to locate marijuana and cocaine hidden inside the vehicle. The driver was charged with possession of cocaine, marijuana, and drug paraphernalia. The suspect was committed to the Gander Hill Correctional Facility.

On Friday, October 15th, Newark Police Officers were called to Lieberman's Bookstore on a report of a shoplifting and sell back scheme. Responding officers observed the suspect and arrested him following a brief foot chase. The suspect was charged with shoplifting and one count of conspiracy.

On Saturday, October 16th, two suspects were arrested for a robbery that occurred on Wednesday, October 6th. One suspect was committed to the Young Correctional Facility on $5,000 bond. The second suspect was released after posting a $5,000 bond.

On Saturday, October 16th, members of the Newark Police Department Street Crime Unit, observed a group of people acting suspiciously in the area of Christiana Tower East. UDPD Detective Ryan Welsh, a member of the Street Crime Unit, reported that the wooded area surrounding the towers often has drug related activity. The officers approached the group. One of the individuals admitted that they had gone into the woods to smoke marijuana. Upon the completion of the investigation, one of the suspects was charged with possession of marijuana, paraphernalia, and underage consumption of alcohol. Two other individuals in the group were also charged with underage consumption of alcohol.

On Sunday, October 17th, members of the Street Crime Unit observed two males exit the Rodney dorm complex and begin to walk down Dallam Road. The officers observed the suspects smoking a cigarette that contained marijuana. One suspect was charged with possession of marijuana and underage consumption of alcohol. The second suspect was charged with possession of marijuana. Both suspects were released at the scene.

The Fall Crime Initiative continues. This year the Newark Police Department has made 653 alcohol arrests. This is an increase of 125 alcohol arrests from this time last year. We have also made 353 noise/disorderly premise arrests. This is an increase of 101 arrests in this category from this time last year.

On Wednesday, October 20th, a police department staff meeting was held to discuss citizen complaints in the area of Ritter Lane and Wollaston Avenue. Complaints made by residents of the George Read Village community were also discussed.

Due to aggressive enforcement efforts, traffic accidents have been reduced by 105 compared to this time last year.
