On Sunday, May 21st at 2:21 a.m., fifteen people were playing foosball in a detached garage on Paper Mill Road. Four suspects entered the garage; one of the suspects was armed with a handgun. The suspects ordered the victims to the ground and told them to empty their pockets. One of the suspects repeatedly struck one of the victims in the head. Upon arriving at the scene, police activated a cell phone tracking application. The suspects were located and arrested by Newark Police in the University Plaza Shopping Center. Three adults were committed to the Howard Young Correctional Institution with a bail amount ranging from $56,000 to $63,000. On Wednesday, May 25th, at 1:27 a.m., a university student that was under the influence of alcohol, entered Main Street D.P. Dough and attempted to remove money from the tip jar. A witness saw the suspect remove the money and grabbed him by the shirt. The suspect dropped the money and left the store yelling obscenities.
