

NEWS RELEASE

Paul M. Tiernan, Chief of Police

December 13th, 2011

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBJECT: Crime Alert - Residential Burglaries

The Newark Police Department is investigating an increase in the number of daytime residential burglaries occurring throughout the city.

In most cases, the incidents involve suspect(s) entering homes through rear doors or windows and removing items which are easily concealed including jewelry and small electronics.

Residents are encouraged to take steps to secure their homes and are asked to report any suspicious persons, vehicles or other activity to the police right away by calling 911. Additional home security tips are available by visiting the City of Newark website at www.cityofnewarkde.us

To offer information regarding this ongoing investigation, please contact the Newark Police Department Criminal Division at 366-7120. You can send an anonymous text message tip by texting 302NPD and your message to TIP411. Information can also be provided anonymously to Crime Stoppers at 1-800-TIP-3333 or via the internet at www.tipsubmit.com where a reward may be available.

The Newark Police Department affirms that all defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
