

WEEKLY REPORT
03/18-03/24/12

Master Corporal Paul Keld and Master Corporal Gerald Bryda attended the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA) training conference. M/Cpl. Keld presented our agency recertification review. The Newark Police Department was recertified as a CALEA agency and was awarded "A cut above" certification. "A cut above" certification is described as "a level of excellence, attainment, respected as a badge of honor." M/Cpl. Keld has done an outstanding job as our accreditation manager the past five years. Since his promotion M/Cpl Keld has been assigned to the Traffic Unit and M/Cpl. Bryda has been assigned as the new accreditation manager.

Sergeant Mike Van Campen and the Special Operation Unit have been very busy addressing resident concerns. They have concentrated patrols on South College Avenue in response to a resident complaint and have heavily patrolled the area of Victoria Mews. Sgt. Van Campen will be contacting a resident that has more information on concerns in the Victoria Mews area.

Chief Tiernan and command staff have completed interviews for the soon to be vacant position of police Lieutenant. Chief Tiernan has recommended that Interim City Manager Carol Houck, promote Kevin Feeney to the rank of Lieutenant.

Some misinformation was recently raised about the number of police officers working on March 17th, Saint Patrick's Day. The Operation Division of the police department planned for Saint Patrick's Day for several weeks. Captain Rick Williams and Lt. William Hargrove adjusted their hours and worked that day. Additional officers both in uniform and wearing plain clothes were assigned as extra officers and were paid for by grant money. Twenty one Newark Police Officers were patrolling the streets. In addition, the State of Delaware Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Enforcement sent agents to work with us. The University of Delaware Police added additional officers to their normal patrol shifts. Newark Officers made a total of 45 criminal arrests and 43 traffic arrests throughout the day. Numerous house parties were dispersed and 10 disorderly premise arrests were made along with 5 noise violation arrests. In the past 5 years, after the Saint Patrick's Day weekend, the police department usually receives several complaints from residents complaining about disorderly activity in the city. This year we have only heard one complaint.
