

WEEKLY REPORT
04/08/12-04/14/12

The Newark Police Department is alerting the public of two indecent exposure incidents which occurred in Newark on Sunday, April 15th. The department is investigating whether these two incidents are related to the five previous incidents that occurred in the fall of 2011. The suspect is described as a white male between 25-35 years of age, approximately 5'10" tall, 175 lbs, with either close cropped hair or possibly bald. The suspect may be operating a gold or tan colored sedan displaying a white license plate.

The first incident occurred at approximately 8:55 p.m. on Sunday, April 15th when the naked male was observed by a female who was walking on Wilson Road. The naked male was first observed walking in front of a home in the 300 block of Wilson Road and then walked between two homes and out of sight. Shortly thereafter, the subject; now clothed in blue shorts and a gray t-shirt was seen running from the area to a gold or tan colored sedan parked near the corner of Wilson Road and Cheltenham Road.

The second incident occurred approximately 35 minutes later in the 100 block of West Park Place. During that incident two female subjects were walking on the sidewalk when they observed a male, with the same description as above, hiding in the bushes in the side yard of a residence. The subject then dropped his pants and exposed his buttocks to the pair. The suspect then fled the area on foot.

On Saturday, April 14th into the morning of Sunday, April 15th, Newark Police Officers and Delaware Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Enforcement agents conducted an alcohol compliance check at a Main Street establishment. The State agency issued a few minor state alcohol violations to servers working at the establishment.

On Monday, April 16th, Mayor Vance A. Funk III, Newark Police Chief Paul M. Tiernan, and UDPD Police Chief Patrick Ogden spoke to Dr. Nancy Giacomini's class at Allison Hall. The class consisted of graduate students from the senior affairs internship program. The Mayor and two police chiefs discussed the town and gown relationship, how the two police agencies work together, and the Mayors vision for downtown. The speakers were well received.

On Wednesday, April 18th, Chief Tiernan met with University of Delaware graduate student, -section intentionally removed- He will be working with the police department on an internship, specializing in the area of emergency management.

Our new police recruit, William Anderson began work this past Monday. Next week he will begin training at the Delaware State Police Academy.
