MISSING PERSON

John Dohms

One Month Time Progressed Photo

The Newark Police Department has issued a Gold Alert for John E. Dohms, a 64 year old male who is overdue in returning to his residence located in the 100 block of East Cleveland Avenue. Dohms, who suffers from dementia, was last seen walking northbound on Creek Road into White Clay Creek State Park around 3 p.m. on Sept. 13. He was last seen wearing a bright green button-down shirt, green socks, white tennis shoes and khaki shorts. He may have a set of binoculars in his possession and wears a Medic Alert bracelet on his left wrist.

Dohms is known to frequent stores in and around Main Street, the Pomeroy Trail, city and state parkland off Paper Mill Road, and University facilities. He also frequents trails in and around White Clay Creek State Park. Police are seeking the public's assistance and encourage residents of northern Newark, Hockessin and southern Chester County, Pa., to check their sheds, outbuildings, cars, under decks or other places of shelter.

The University of Delaware is offering a $10,000 reward for locating John Dohms, a retired UD professor.
