

WEEKLY REPORT
01/05/13 – 01/13/13

Burglary Arrests:

Newark Police have arrested 19 year old Mikeal J. Stone of Newark and 18 year old Kalin Jackson of New Castle for two residential burglaries occurring in late October.

On October 22nd, 2012 between the hours of 1 p.m. and 10:50 p.m. an unoccupied home in the unit block of South Fawn Drive in Newark was burglarized. During this burglary the suspects forced open a rear door to the home and once inside removed a computer and jewelry from the home.

On October 23rd, 2012 between the hours of 6 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. an unoccupied home in the unit block of Sue Lane in Newark was burglarized. During this burglary the suspects gained entry to the home via an unsecured rear window. Once inside they removed a computer and other electronic devices.

NPD detectives located pawn records indicating that Stone sold jewelry stolen from the South Fawn residence to a local jewelry store. NPD Crime Scene Technicians located fingerprints at the South Fawn residence tying Jackson to the crime. A witness reported seeing two subjects matching the description of Stone and Jackson in the area of Sue Lane immediately before the burglary. Detectives also learned that Stone was arrested in 2009 for burglarizing the same home. Neither Stone nor Jackson was known to either homeowner.

Graffiti Arrests:

Ongoing graffiti investigations by the Newark Police Department Street Crimes Unit have led to the identification and arrest of Felix J. Smith of Newark for his role in graffiti vandalism throughout the City of Newark and University of Delaware Campus resulting in thousands of dollars of vandalism. The investigation resulted in a January 2nd search warrant of Smith's home where evidence was located linking him to the crimes.

As a result of the investigation, Smith has been linked to graffiti vandalism in 58 locations throughout the City of Newark and an additional 13 locations on the University of Delaware Campus, resulting in over $8,100 in damaged property. Smith was arrested on January 10th, 2013 by members of the Newark Police Department and University of Delaware Police Department on 162 criminal charges. He was released from custody pending his appearance in Alderman Court #40 in late January. The arrest of Smith is the latest in the Newark Police Departments ongoing investigation into the identification and arrest of graffiti vandals. In the past two years NPD have arrested 34 such vandals.

Copper Thefts:

On January 7th a victim reported that an unknown suspect removed $200 worth of copper wire and a $400 vacuum pump from his unsecured work vehicle while it was parked on Interchange Blvd sometime between January 5th and January 7th.

On January 10th the Newark Country Club reported that an unknown suspect cut copper from four air conditioning units on the property sometime between January 5th and January 7th. The damage to the AC units is estimated at $2,000 and the stolen copper is estimated at $400. No suspects have been identified.

On January 12th at approximately 1:20 a.m. an unknown suspect broke out a window at Tecot Electric located on Interchange Blvd and removed copper and Romex wire valued at $550. No suspects have been identified and the investigation has been turned over to the Criminal Investigation Division.

AC Unit Thefts:

On January 9th four AC units were stolen during the evening hours from a renovation site located at 82 E. Cleveland Avenue. A suspect has been identified and the investigation is ongoing.
