

WEEKLY REPORT
02/17/13-02/23/13

On Wednesday, February 20th, the Newark Police Department Special Operations Unit and the Delaware Division of Alcohol & Tobacco Enforcement conducted a compliance check at Mojoes on Main Street. DATE agents made four fictitious ID arrests and members of the Newark Police Department charged three suspects for underage consumption of alcohol just off the Mojoes premises.

On Monday, February 25th at approximately 8:55 p.m., the Newark Police responded to South Chapel Street, North of Continental Avenue, for a report of a strong-armed robbery. A 21 year-old female victim, a University of Delaware student, reported that she was walking southbound on South Chapel Street with her phone in her hand. The victim observed an unknown black female walking towards her. The victim stated that the female then started running at her and grabbed her phone out of her hand. The female suspect also tried to steal the victim's purse but was unsuccessful. The female suspect fled the area running between the 700 and 800 buildings of Scholar Drive. A K9 track was initiated with the assistance of a UDPD K9, with negative results. The suspect is described as a black female with a fit build, 20-23 years old, 120-130 pounds, approximately 5'05" tall, wearing all black and a black baseball style hat.

On Monday, March 4th, Linda Burns replacement will begin work. Mrs. Jacqueline Ambrosi worked for a law firm in Cherry Hill, NJ for ten years as an Administrative Assistant supervising office staff. Mrs. Ambrosi served in the United States Navy from 1983-1987. Mrs. Ambrosi speaks fluent Spanish and will be a valuable asset to our Criminal Investigation Division.

Also on March 4th, our three new police recruits will begin their training at the Delaware State Police Academy. The 22 week academy training program will be completed on August 22, 2013, at which time the recruits will return to NPD to begin field training.
