FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBJECT: Three NPD Lieutenants Graduate from Prestigious Command and Leadership Academy

On Thursday, May 23rd, 2013 three Newark Police Lieutenants graduated from the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police (NJSACOP) Command and Leadership Academy. This intensive, 14 week program was developed by the NJSACOP in partnership with the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and focuses on leadership as a science, focusing on logical, critical thinking, decision making, communications and counseling and conflict management. <http://njsacop.org/content.asp?pl=18&contentid=54>

The three graduating officers were Lieutenant George Stanko of the Criminal Investigation Division, Lieutenant William Hargrove of the Special Enforcement Division, and Lieutenant Mark Farrall of the Administration Division. They are the first NPD graduates of this program, which was held at the New Castle County Police Department.

Chief Paul M. Tiernan stated: "I am proud of the success of these three officers as they complete this prestigious leadership program. Their success is a testament to their hard work and commitment to the Newark Police Department and the citizens of Newark."

Chief Tiernan also wished to thank the New Jersey State Association of Chiefs of Police for developing the program and the New Castle County Police Department for hosting the first course in Delaware.
