

NEWS RELEASE

Paul M. Tiernan, Chief of Police

June 12, 2013

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBJECT: Newark Police Department's Crime Mapping Database Now Online

The Newark Police Department's calls for service (including criminal complaints and traffic incidents) can now be viewed online at RAIDS Online (www.raidsonline.com). The map contains data from January 1st, 2013 to the present and will be updated weekly. The map offers the capability for viewers to search by event type, date range, and also to sign up for crime notifications within their community. A fully functional iPhone application is also available for free.

"The Newark Police Department is pleased to offer this map to the public, which enables community members to stay informed about what's happening in their neighborhood at no cost to the taxpayer or user," said Chief Paul Tiernan. "Newark Police will continue to harness technology to provide our citizens with the best law enforcement services available."

To visit the Newark crime map, go to:

<http://www.raidsonline.com/?address=Newark,%20DE>

Media Contact: Cpl. James N. Spadola, Public Information Officer, 302-366-7110 ext. 140 or james.spadola@cj.state.de.us.