

WEEKLY REPORT
06/23/13-06/29/13

On Friday, June 28th, officers spent considerable time dealing with flooding and road closures due to the heavy rain. At 4:57 p.m., officers received a call from Timothy's Restaurant that two females were trapped in the creek. Corporal Patrick Craig responded. He was able to assist one female out of the water and found the other female unconscious in the water. Corporal Craig was able to pull the second female to the shore line. Officers Gruszecki and Wolfrom secured a rope around the female and pulled her up the bank of the creek to safety.

Most of the department will be working July 4th, for the fireworks display. Two officers will be assigned to the reservoir to ensure people do not trespass after dark.
