

WEEKLY REPORT
07/14/13-07/20/13

Newark Police have arrested three of four subjects involved in the July 15th armed robbery of two University of Delaware students. During the incident, two 18 year old male victims were seated on a bench at the entrance to an apartment complex when they were approached by four black males. One male displayed a handgun while the group demanded that the victims turn over their belongings. The males fled after receiving an undisclosed amount of currency, two cell phones and a passport. They were last seen running towards the area of Madison Drive. The victims, both students of the English Language Institute, were not injured during the incident. Detectives quickly obtained surveillance video capturing the four suspects immediately prior to the crime. Multiple officers from Newark PD identified three of the suspects captured on this video. Identified were 18 year old Malik Wilson, 16 year old Mateo Wise, and 13 year old Jiair Whitaker-Dean, all of Newark. Mateo Wise turned himself in to Newark PD on July 18th after he learned warrants had been obtained for his arrest. He was arraigned and turned over to the New Castle County Detention Center in lieu of $16,000 bail. Malik Wilson was captured in the early morning of July 19th after members of the NPD Street Crimes Unit and Probation and Parole arrested him at his home. Wilson was arraigned and committed to the Howard R. Young Correctional Institute in lieu of $32,000 bail. Jiair Whitaker-Dean turned himself in on July 22nd and was issued $24,000 secured bail and committed to Peoples Place. The fourth suspect has been identified and arrest warrants are pending.

On Monday July 22nd, the three police recruits, who are attending the Delaware State Police Academy, were officially sworn in as Newark Police Officers. The informal ceremony was conducted by the City Secretary and attended by the City Manager, Deputy City Manager and the Chief of Police. The recruits graduate from the academy on Friday, August 2nd and will begin field training on Monday August 5th. Currently Cpl. Walker and PFC Wolfrom are in training to become Field Training Officers and will assist in the upcoming field training of the recruits.

On Tuesday, July 23rd the FBI completed their biennial NCIC audit at the police department. The final report showed the NCIC records to be 100% compliant. In addition, the FBI was very complimentary in regard to the aspects of record keeping, policy compliance and training.
