FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBJECT: Newark Police Announce NPD Trading Card Project

With donations from local businesses, Newark Police recently undertook a project to feature every Newark Police Officer, civilian employee and specialized unit on a trading card. On September 12th, 2013 at 12:00 p.m. in the gymnasium of the middle school of Newark Charter School (2001 Patriot Way, Newark, DE, 19711) Newark Police will unveil the trading cards to the school's 4th – 6th grade students. Senior leadership from Newark Police, the City of Newark, and elected officials will be in attendance. The media is invited to attend.

The goal of the project is to foster good community relations and increase the familiarity of the citizens of Newark with their officers. Prize packages will be given to the first 8 children who collect a complete set of 86 trading cards. Further information of the contest and rules will be given at the ceremony.

Newark Police would like to thank Ambling University Development LLC, Bing's Bakery, Dannemann & Danneman LLC, Developmental Disabilities Council, Deer Park Tavern, Formal Affairs, Lang Development Group, Newark Deli and Bagel, Newark Morning Rotary Club, Price Auto Group (Newark Toyota World), various retired officers of NPD, Switch Skateboarding, Taverna Rustic Italian, Timothy's of Newark, Tsionas Management, Mayor Funk, and Wooden Wheels for their contributions which funded 100% of this project.

The Newark Police Department affirms that all defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
