

WEEKLY REPORT
10/27/13-11/02/13

Deputy City Manager Andrew Haines, Chief Tiernan, and Lt. Feeney have begun conducting oral interviews of police officer candidates.

Newark Police have arrested 25 year old Ernest Mingo, of Bear, DE, for his involvement in an early morning bar fight at Wize Guys Sports Lounge on October 27, 2013. Newark Police Department also arrested the bar owner, 30 year old Mariano Castelli, and an associate, 26 year old Christopher O'Neill, for hindering the subsequent police investigation.

On October 27, 2013 at approximately 1:09 a.m., NPD officers responded to a report of a large bar fight at Wize Guys Sports Lounge located at 1108 South College Avenue. Upon their arrival, patrol officers discovered that all combatants from the fight had fled, however a 31 year old male victim was lying unconscious in the bar. The victim was transported to Christiana Hospital via ambulance where he was treated and admitted into the hospital for a fractured skull, and internal bleeding on the brain. He has since been released from the hospital.

During the investigation, detectives learned that a large fight broke out in the bar and a 31 year old victim was either knocked down or fell to the ground. Once on the ground, detectives learned that 25 year old Ernest Mingo kicked the victim in the head. As officers attempted to investigate the incident, they first made contact with 26 year old Christopher O'Neill, an associate of the owner. O'Neill initially lied about his identity and provided a false statement regarding the incident to police officers. The owner, Mariano Castelli, was contacted on October 31st by Detectives. Castelli refused to cooperate with the investigation and refused to provide video surveillance of the incident. Detectives returned to the Wize Guys establishment on November 1st with a search warrant and removed the video surveillance system.

Mingo was arrested on November 4th for his involvement in the assault. Castelli and O'Neill were both arrested on November 1st for their attempts to conceal the incident.

On October 28, 2013, Knights of Columbus St. Michael Council #4548 presented the Officer of the Quarter Award to Newark Police Detective Michael Watson for outstanding performance during the second quarter of 2013.

Detective Michael Watson received this award for his actions while conducting a stalking investigation.

On April 27, 2013, a 28 year old female from Newark reported that her ex-boyfriend, a 32 year old male from Florida, had been sending her unwanted text messages and packages. He hacked into several computer accounts changing her passwords and posting unwanted messages. He sent out naked photographs of her to her friends, family and former students. This activity occurred over a period of several months making the investigative process more difficult.

Detective Watson's lengthy and detailed investigation included obtaining and executing fifteen search warrants, three subpoenas and assisting the victim in obtaining a Protection From Abuse Order. Detective Watson travelled to Florida to coordinate with the Pinellas County Detectives in drafting and executing a search warrant at the suspect's Florida home. Because of his investigation, the suspect was arrested on numerous felony charges and the suspect's ability to further terrorize the victim was severely hampered.
