

WEEKLY REPORT

12/8/13-12/14/13

On December 17th, 2013, NPD conducted their annual Toys for Tots distribution with the help of Lt. Mark Farrall, Sgt. Curtis Davis, M/Cpl. Tom Maiura, Cpl. Greg D'Elia, Cpl. James Spadola, PO Paul Lawrence and Nathaniel Graber.

Many families at the Newark Housing Authority and White Chapel neighborhood received the holiday spirit thanks to the supporters of the program: Aetna, Hose, Hook & Ladder, The Little Caboose Daycare, Holy Angels Middle School, Millstone Properties as well as gifts donated by the community.

City businesses have recently been targeted through a variety of phone scams. Scammers have been claiming that the merchants are behind on their utility payments, or tinkering with the businesses credit card system. In efforts to prevent future victims, Cpl. Spadola has been aggressively using social media in an attempt to increase awareness of the scams.

Over the past weekend, two businesses in separate locations (Old Cooches Bridge Road and Hansen Court) had vehicle batteries stolen from work vehicles. A newer model 4 door white Jeep Wrangler is the suspect vehicle for the Old Cooches Bridge Road incident.
