

WEEKLY REPORT
03/09/14 to 03/15/14

The weekend before St. Patrick's Day passed without any serious crimes. Extra patrols were on duty Saturday and Sunday and focused on heavy pedestrian traffic on Main Street. Preliminary numbers indicate that officers made approximately 73 arrests, generally for order maintenance violations such as noise violations and disorderly conduct.

The Newark Police Department is attempting to identify two suspects captured by cell phone video and photos engaging in sexual intercourse in public in the rear parking lot of the Galleria Building located at 45 East Main Street. The incident occurred in broad daylight in the afternoon hours of March 15th in plain view of numerous passers-by. The incident was captured by several witnesses via cell phone and was quickly posted on various social media websites.

Suspect 1 is described as a college aged white male with brown hair. He was last seen wearing a green button down shirt, khaki pants and brown boots.

Suspect 2 is described as a college aged white female with blonde hair. She was last seen wearing a green short sleeve t-shirt, jean shorts, brown cowboy boots and glasses.

Apartment residents throughout Newark have fallen victim to their packages being stolen from doorsteps or common areas. Newark Police posted a crime alert on social media in an attempt to warn citizens of this new trend and ways to avoid it.

Cpl. Micolucci and Sgt. VanCampen are completing a proactive policing strategy to reduce criminal incidents focusing on Annabelle Street. They are involving the Building Department and contacting property managers to encourage cooperation and combat crime collectively.
