"Newark's Got Talent" Youth Open Mic Nights

Newark, DE (June 2, 2015) - Newark Parks and Recreation's newest youth talent program will be showcasing several very talented young performing artists in the local community. The new series of Wednesday night concerts, centrally located on the Academy Lawn, will give youth ages six through seventeen the opportunity to sing and dance on the same stage used by the artists in the Spring Concert Series, allowing these budding performers the opportunity to experience performing to a live audience on a professional-type stage. Concerts begin June 10 and continue each Wednesday evening through June 24.

Scheduled performances currently include:

June 10 - 6:30pm - Hanna Paige (Singer/Songwriter)

June 17 - 5:30pm - Meltdown (Modern Rock)

6:15pm - Wicked Wayz (Rock)

7:00pm - Garret Norman (Pop)

June 24 - 5:00pm - Grace Walton of the Safety Scissor Savages (Song/Dance)

6:30pm - Jessica Belle (Singer/Songwriter)

Interested performers should visit the City of Newark webpage (www.cityofnewarkde.us/openmic) or call the Newark Parks and Recreation Department at (302) 366-7000 to register. Individuals and groups are welcome, but pre-registration is required.

Parking fees are in effect downtown during the concerts. On rain days the concert will be cancelled. Please call the Leisure Time Hotline at (302) 366-7147 on rain days for more information.
