

WEEKLY REPORT

The "National Night Out" event held on August 4th on Academy Street was well attended by many area residents. There were various public safety displays, demonstrations and interaction with public safety personnel. Many of our police and fire personnel donned heavy uniforms and equipment in the heat to demonstrate SWAT, K-9, and fire rescue. Our "Hug a Cop" PO Aaron Olicker was very popular, posing for numerous photographs with the public. Corporal James Marconi and Communications Officer Rachel Davis grilled the food for the evening. We would like to thank Mayor Sierer, Councilwoman Hadden, and Councilman Ruckle, and their families for coming out and supporting Newark's public safety personnel.

On July 30th, a 21 year old female was riding her bicycle while crossing South Main Street at a green light signal. A motorist travelling on South Main Street drove through the red light and struck the bicyclist. The injured woman was taken to the hospital and the driver was issued a summons. This is an unfortunate reminder on why our officers vigorously enforce motor vehicle violations such as disregarding red lights and stop signs. While some motorists complain about receiving a traffic summons, the personal injury, damage and sometime death, caused by careless driving cannot be ignored.

Our uniform and plain clothes officers have been very busy with some area hotels during the month of July. Two officers observed an interaction between a male and a suspected prostitute in the parking lot of one hotel. The officers followed the two, and observed the prostitute performing a sex act of the customer in his vehicle. The male admitted to paying $30 for the sex act.

Two officers were on patrol when they observed a female in a hotel parking lot, as she was about to inject heroin into her arm. Two arrests were made for possession of heroin and drug paraphernalia.

Officers had a hotel under surveillance after receiving information that a suspect, wanted for violation of probation for firearms possession, was staying at the hotel and using an eleven year old girls as a prostitute. The officers located and arrested the suspect but did not find the girl. An officer while checking the hotel area, observed two males parked in the lot of a fast food restaurant. Upon approaching the vehicle, the officer observed the driver preparing to inject heroin. Both occupants of the vehicle were arrested and 51 bags of heroin were recovered. Several other arrests occurred at area hotels and officers will continue directed patrols during the month of August.
