PRESS RELEASE

August 11, 2008

DATE/TIME OF INCIDENT: August 11, 2008 around 12:45 a.m.

LOCATION: Windy Hills Development

NATURE OF INCIDENT: Thefts from vehicles

Summary:

Newark police officers were notified by a resident of Elm Ave in the Windy Hills development of persons walking through yards and attempting to enter vehicles. Responding officers observed a black Cadillac Seville in the area and stopped the vehicle. Located in the vehicle were Gabriel Wallace and Ryan Taylor. Property found on the suspects indicated they had recently committed thefts. Subsequent investigation revealed that Wallace and Taylor parked the vehicle and walked the neighborhood on foot. The defendants entered unlocked vehicles and removed loose change and other miscellaneous items. In addition to cash, items stolen by the defendants include small tools, keys, and an electric razor. Specific charges and bail information are pending at the time of this release.

There are four known victims, but the Newark Police Department believes additional thefts were committed by these defendants. If anyone in this area had items stolen from their vehicles during this time frame, please contact the Newark Police Department at (302) 366-7111.
