

NEWARK POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

July 6, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SUBJECT: Juvenile Arrested for Graffiti Vandalism

The Newark Police Department announces the arrest of a 17 year-old male for two acts of graffiti in Newark. The juvenile, from the 4500 block of South Jane Way in the Windermere neighborhood in Stanton, was arrested July 2. He was charged with two counts of Graffiti and two counts of Possession of Graffiti Implements. The defendant was released to his mother pending an arraignment in Family Court.

The graffiti vandal tagged the word “Kanon” on the Panera Bread at 140 East Main Street, and also the pillars of the South College Avenue bridge. Identification of the defendant was aided by information garnered by the New Castle County Graffiti Task Force.

Any information regarding this investigation or other graffiti in Newark can be reported to Cpl. Jeff Schwagel at 302-366-7110 ext. 406 or Jeffrey.Schwagel@cj.state.de.us.
